Paddy:

I am pleased to announce that we have finally reached an agreement with the Pacific Beach Hotel in Honolulu, Hawaii. This agreement comes after more than ten years of negotiating since the Hotel was first organized.

The solidarity we received from our brothers and sisters in Hawaii and abroad were instrumental in our success and essential to our survival. For this, I want to thank you for your support. We would not have been successful without the solidarity from the ITF.

With the contract settled, the ILWU is lifting the boycott of the Pacific Beach Hotel. We hope you will spread the good word of our success as the ILWU represents the workers of the Pacific Beach Hotel for many years to come.

Again, thank you for your dedication and support of the ILWU.

In Solidarity,

Robert McEllrath
